

The EGL in 1982

EFFICIENCY GOLF LEAGUE

1982

The passing of the League's 50th year caused no one to relax upon the brilliance of the past; the 51st year was attacked with vigor and enthusiasm.

The EGL Yearbook for 1982 is certainly dedicated to the membership as a whole, but special mention is deserved by several members who made the year all the better...

...Dick Molyneaux, again, pushed raffle tickets with salesmanship unequalled. Now that he has retired, he can sell full time!

...Denny Ellwood did it all. His most notable role was as ever-present camera man.

...John Connor put together an outing in the toughest of financial times.

...Bill Handley and Dave Bellows added more sport to the golf with their "Out Pick EGL'ers".

...Bernie Robinson set a new EGL standard with his weekly memo and individual statistics.

This yearbook is a tribute to your efforts.
